The spirit and strength of San Francisco capital are shown in the course of the Pacific Fire Insurance Company of that city. In connection with the Chicago calamity their share of the loss is very heavy. At a meeting of the company, some of the directors showed signs of weakening, but a leading stockholder rose and said: "The Pacific will stand. Is there any man mean enough to sell me his shares at par' I will take them." He was able to do it. When a spirit like this is combined with the laws of California, as to individual inability of stockholders, it makes the Pacific a tower of strength, a pro-

What Dyspepsia May End In. Indigestion is not dangerous, say the faculty. erhaps not in itself, while it remains mere indiestion; but look at the consequences to which it hronic disease. A spark of fire is a small thing. A pressure of the foot will put it out; a breath will extinguish it. Yet it may fire a powder mill or kindle a tiame that will consume a city. In like manner indigestion may produce gastritis, cancer of the stomach, congestion of the lowels, apoplexy, liver disease, and many other dangerous maladies. Is it not wise then to check it in the germ? Nothing more clearly and indisputably established than hat Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will eradicate lyspepsia in all its stages. The true policy, hower, is to extinguish it in the first stages, with this tive. It is easier to quench a spark than a flame, and it is easier to cure dyspepsia when it is firs lect, and become complicated with other ailments. There is not the shadow of a doubt that the bitters are as directly antagonistic to dispepsia as water is to fire. There are thousands of cases on record proving this fact. The remedy is safe and agrees ble. All the liquors of commerce, prescribed as stimulants, leave a sting behind. Locisville, Kv., Oct. 8, 1869.

De. John Bull—Dear Sir: Many thanks to you for the medicine you have so kindly given me. I have been a great sufferer for years, and had the advice of various physicians. Some pronounced my pine, some my lung, and some my heart to be the seat of my disease. I have been burnt, blistered and cupped until I had become disheartened. Several very eminent physicians who examined my spine informed me that I was threatened with paralysis or appoplexy any day, and that nothing but a seton would releve me. I had a perfect horror of that, and was hesitating about having one inserted, when you kindly sent me your Sarsaparilla which I immediately begins to take three times a day. I had suffered terribly with a most acute pain in the right side of my head, especially when I would read or write for any length of time, and on rising to my feet I would be perfectly blind for several minutes, and would have to hold to something to prevent talling. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 8, 1869. UPERIOR TEAS

BULL'S

I am most happy to inform you that the pain it my head is entirely relieved; I suffer but so don ith my spine, and then not so acutely. My appe-tite is good; indeed, for the first time in my life, enjoy my dinner better than any meal during the You kindly sent me four bottles again last night and I began again this morning, and I hope to be entirely relieved. Please accept my heartfe't thank and best wishes.

Very truly, your most grateful friend, M. R. C. EIVERS. My journal abounds with similar letters, all of thich I guarantee to be genuine and written by he persons whose names they bear. No not suffer yourself to be imposed on. Don't be drawn away after new and doubtful experi-nents. Don't risk your health by letting novices experiment upon you with their trash.

My Sarsaparilla has stood the test for twenty-five rears; it is still the Sarsaparilla of the day, and of he age, towering over all others in popularity and to curative qualities. Avoid all those who are trying to palm off on you other extracts of Sarsaparlila so-called. Remember it is Dr. John Bull's Sarsaparlila, of I onisville, Ky., that is the old and reliable remedy for impurities of the blood and scrofulus affections. Always bear that in mind.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Knowing the efficacy of your Sarsaparilla, and the healing and beneficial qualities it possesses, I send you the following statement of my case: I was wounded about two years ago, was taken prisoner and confined for sixteen months. Being moved so often, my wounds have not healed yet. I have not sat up a moment since I was wounded. I am shot through the hips. My general health is impaired, and I need something to assist nature; I have more faith in your Sarsaparilla than anything else. I wish that which is genuine. Please express me half a dozen bottles, and oblige CAPT. C. P. JOHNSON, St. Louis, Mo.

P. S.—The following was written April 30th 1866, by Mrs. Jennie Johnson, mother of Capt, C. S. Johnson, was a skillful surgeon and physician in Central New York, where he died, leaving the above C. He is fearful of getting a spurious a cle, hence his writing to you for it. His wou were terrible, but I believe he will recover.

Of Lives Saved! It is one of the remarkable facts of this remarkable sags, not in sevely that so many persons are the victims of dyspepsia or indigestion, but its willing victims. How, we would not be willing to my that any one regards dyspepsia with favor, or facts disposed to rank it among the luxurinoed life. For from it. Those who have experienced its terments would accort such an idea. All dread it, and would glodly disposes with its unplement familiarities. Hark Tapley, who was joily under all the trying circumstances in which he was placed, never had an attack of dyspepsia, or his joility would have speedily tornaises him. Hen and woman assertiness suffer its tortures uncomplainingly, but who ever heard of a person who enjoyed them?

Of all the multifarious diseases to which the human system is liable, there is, perhaps, no one on generally prevalent as dyspepsis. There are diseases more acute and painful, and which more the questify prove fatal; but none the effects of which are so depressing to the mind and so positively distressing to the body. If there is a wretched being in the world it is almost universally.

A Confirmed Dyspeptic. But it is not our intention to durant on the hears of dyspepsis. To describe them truthfully simply an impossibility, but it is possible to no out a remedy. We have said that dyspepsis is a hape the most universal of human diseases. Is emphatically the case in the United Stat Whether this prevalence is due to the character the food, the method of its preparation, or the he manner in which it is usually swallowed, is our province to explain. The great fact with where we are called to deal, this:

Nearly every other person you meet is a victim, an apparently willing one; for were this not the case, why so many sufferers, when a certain, speedy and safe remedy is within the easy reach of all who desire to avail the maelvesof it? But the majority will not. Blinded by prejudice, or deterred by some other unexplained influence, they refuse to accept the relief proficered them. They turn a deafear to the testimony of the thousands whose sufferings have been alleviated, and with stranges niatuation appear to cling with demonstrated determination to their ruthless tormentor. But anys a dyspeptic: 'What is the remedy?' to which we reply. This great alleviator of human suffering is almost as widely known as the English inaguage. It has allayed the agonies of thousands, and is to-day carrying comfort and encouragement to thousands of others. This schnoweldged panaces is none other than
